

WEST YSLETA COUNTRY CLUB TO OPEN SUNDAY; WILL BE MECCA FOR AUTOISTS

THE opening of the West Ysleta Country club Sunday will provide a most delightful place for El Pasoans to take their recreation, and will doubtless be the scene of much activity through the remainder of the summer season, as El Paso's perfect winter climate is conducive to much outdoor life. It will be the natural gathering place for pleasure seekers in El Paso people at all times and in all seasons. There has long been the need of such a place down the valley, as Ysleta has always been a most popular place for an automobile ride, and with the spacious grounds, and the dining room, the clubhouse, and the garage, the success of the club as an automobileists' mecca would seem assured.

The building in itself is most attractive, and the surrounding country is very pretty, while the ride to it passes through an attractive part of the valley. The road the greater part of the distance, is lined with either fields of waving, fragrant alfalfa, young orchards, or alfalfa, sturdy growing trees, or older trees with their wide branches heavy with fruit. Contrasted with the farms already thriving under cultivation, are the stretches of untouched land, waiting the plow of some hardy farmer to make them produce their wonderful possibilities, and the beauty of the mountains as a background to every picture. The opening of the club will not be a formal dedication of the building that will come later when the entire building is completely finished, but the club will be open to accommodate visitors and club members Sunday morning.

For the social events in town, the week has no great amount of interest. Only small card parties, and club meetings are scheduled. However, these little gatherings tend to really greater sociability, as the guests when few in number are usually more congenial, and the smaller affairs improve acquaintances and strengthen friendships much more than do the stiff formal affairs, when the guests come in a perfect crush.

Some of the hostesses for the coming week will be Miss Frances Henderson, who entertains the Q. E. D. club, whose membership is made up of the younger set; Mrs. LeRoy Ellingsworth, who entertains the Army Bridge club; Mrs. Frank Lynch will give a luncheon for the Omega Phi society; Mrs. A. J. Rose will be the hostess for the A. L. A. club; Miss Rose Platt will entertain the Sunshine Helpers, and Mrs. K. L. Rhonda gives a little party complementary to Lieut. and Mrs. C. G. Forcher.

The weekly hops for the officers of the Border patrol, their families and personal guests will be inaugurated at the post Tuesday night, and will give El Pasoans and the army people a very pleasant evening to anticipate weekly. This will make three dances a week to live up to social life—the post hop, the midweek dance at the country club, and the club's weekend dance Saturday night.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.
Monday.
Mrs. LeRoy Ellingsworth will entertain the Army Bridge club. Miss Frances Henderson will be the hostess for the Q. E. D. club.

Church Affairs.
Mrs. J. C. Worthington will entertain Circle Three of the First Methodist church Aid society at her home Friday afternoon.

The Triangle club of the First Christian church enjoyed a delightful little social meeting Thursday afternoon in the church building. The affair was given as a farewell for Miss Gladys Webb, president of the club, who is soon leaving for Salem, Oregon. Games and amusements made the afternoon pass pleasantly and then refreshments were served. Among the grown-ups present were: Mesdames Perry J. Rice, J. A. Shannon, A. Hubbard, W. T. Hays, Larry Young and Milton Robinson. Misses Inez Sager and Alice Hendee. The club members were: Misses Gladys Webb, Hazel Kinney, Ruth Shannon, Virginia Howe, Hazel Robinson, Elsie Hubbard, Lillie Dale, Florence Carr, Lois Eagan, and Roberta Rose.

Mrs. J. C. Worthington and Mrs. Esther Lucas will entertain the women's guild of the church of St. Clement with a "Kensington Tea" Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leary, 415 North El Paso street.

A very successful musical program was given Friday night at the Austin Park Christian church. The orchestra from the Calvary Holston Square Baptist church played a number of selections. Mrs. Rosa Young and Walter Dattis sang solos, Mrs. O. J. Allen, Mrs. A. Wandell, Mrs. J. S. Cash and Mrs. A. Grube sang several quartet numbers. Mrs. Sam Watson, Miss Mary Madison and Miss Irma Vance recited pleasing selections. Adna Barnes and Mrs. Sam Watson played piano solos and a duet was sung by S. M. Hyten and E. Standish, and quartet selections were sung by S. M. Hyten, A. Kuiken, E. E. Nold and A. Nishon. The concert was well attended.

Miss Almira Mead was the hostess for the meeting of the Queen Esther circle, of the First Methodist church, which was held Friday night at her home on Octavia street. A business meeting was first held at which Miss Phyllis Eickman presided. Mrs. A. A. Jones, who is the director of the circle, assisted. Games and other amusements were enjoyed. Light refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her sister Miss Anna Mead and Mrs. Helen J. Mead. Among those present were: Mesdames A. A. Jones and Helen J. Mead; Misses Phyllis Eickman, Effriede Eickman, Elizabeth Fry, Madeline Plank, Lillian Mayhew, A. Chabin, Pauline Eck, A. Hunter, Maurine Bailey, A. Price; Messrs. Tom Lyons, Ray Pritchett and A. Knott.

Parties.

Mrs. H. E. Mosley entertained Thursday evening with a miscellaneous shower, complimentary to Miss Vida Phillips, who will be married next Wednesday to Raymond McLean. The house was prettily decorated with red and white dahlia. A very pleasant evening was spent by the guests with games and various other amusements. The shower gifts were presented to the bride-elect after she was seated at the luncheon table, and she received many pretty and useful gifts. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. John Harvey, Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Angela Lahnke, Derris F. Houston, Julia Burrows, Earle P. Burrows, Battle Williamson, Isabel Spellman, Ruby Phillips, Ethel Phillips, Lillian Koenig, Gertrude Stout, Anna Stout, Mary Price, Emma McLean, Kate McLean and Rose McLean.

Automobiling.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swain and children have returned from the Hudsons, where they spent a three weeks outing, camping at the summer camp of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powers. They made the trip in an Overland car and had exceptionally good luck. They experienced no tire trouble during the trip.

A party of autoists are expected home Saturday from a month's fishing and hunting trip through New Mexico, going by the Mimbres river, and the Mogollon mountains. They made the trip in W. D. Connell's Pathfinder and Lee Glascock's Buick cars. The high waters of the Mimbres river held the party up for ten days during a part of their trip. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Connell and son, Jesse, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Glascock, and their guest, Mrs. Joseph Deady, of El Paso, Nevada.

Attention! Semi-Professional and Amateur Photographers.

Our constantly increasing business in both cameras and camera supplies leads us to emphasize the splendid service we offer. Not only do we carry a complete line of Ansco cameras and supplies, but we also carry Cyko paper, the paper which gives the best possible prints from any negatives. We also all attention to the fact that we will develop and print your negatives at a nominal cost. If you are interested in a new camera, we will be glad to explain in detail the advisability of getting an Ansco.

Dances.

Mrs. M. C. McNamee will entertain in honor of her guest, Miss Mae McCabe, Monday night at her home in Fort Bliss, with an informal one-step party.

A delightful hop was given by the officers of the 15th cavalry Friday night in the post hall of the headquarters building. Flags, crossed sabres and troop gauds attractively decorated the room, and the 15th cavalry band played the dance music. Col. and Mrs. George H. Morgan and Capt. and Mrs. Howard H. Hickok received the guests. During the evening punch and dainty sandwiches were served in the dance intermissions. Among some of those present were: Maj. and Mrs. V. T. Davidson, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Sherwood, Lieut. and Mrs. Leland Wadsworth, Lieut. and Mrs. Henry R. Lewis, Mesdames W. W. McNamee, Charles D. Rhodes, LeRoy Ellingsworth, Victor Foster, Misses Edith Morgan, Dorothy Morgan, Mae McCabe, Valerie Garard, Sue Dixon, Grace Wings, Col. Joseph Garard, Maj. W. R. Sample, Maj. Edson Lewis, Capt. William Johnson, Capt. E. D. Scott, Capt. M. L. Crimmins, Lieut. W. W. Gordon, Lieut. R. E. Collins, Lieut. John C. Maul, Dr. Michael A. Dailey, Dr. John G. Ingold, Dr. John H. H. Scudder, Messrs. W. H. Hawkins, W. H. F. Judd and Ralph Wings.

President's Daughter Buys Player Piano.

New Apollo Grand Is Much Admired at the White House.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 1.—Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, who recently addressed the National Federation of Women's clubs here, became very enthusiastic over an Apollo shown at the Fine Arts building and finally placed an order for a Melville Clarke grand piano, equipped with the Apollo automatic player action. The instrument is now in the White House at Washington, where it is the object of much admiring attention. The music company, 484 San Antonio street, are El Paso agents for the Apollo.—Advertisement
